COOKING SECONDARY RECIPES

- Recipes are provided by the Provincial Technical Committee and will reference the textbook(s) that the recipe was adapted from.
- Although recipes are included in this “contest project” we recommend that you refer to a textbook such as the “On Cooking” or “Professional Cooking”. You will find procedural guidelines and in-depth supporting materials for the preparation and cooking techniques needed.
- Many textbooks include photographs, text and online content that will illustrate proper and safe working techniques as well as important aspects of the recipe’s preparation. Common and correct cooking practices must be respected for all plates.
- Cooking methods and culinary terminology from the recipes stated in the menu must be respected and used to prepare the required dishes.
- The competitor is free to use their creativity in the presentation of the dish but must adhere to the project specifications.
- Food items and quantities are subject to change without notice, depending on availability and quality; all competitors will have the same conditions.
- Recipes, provided by the Provincial Technical Committee, are to be utilized as a guideline for procedure and techniques. Portion sizes are critical, and the competitor must scale up or down to produce required portions.
