What was the first thing that went through your mind when you realized your competitor made Team Canada?

“Woohoo! We’re going to France!”

What made you want to train competitors for Skills Competitions?

We have some outstanding talent in these kids and Skills gives them an opportunity to showcase that. It is awesome to be able to help these competitors reach greater heights and it’s cool to be a part of the whole process.

What do you think sets your competitor apart from the others in their skill area?

Walt doesn’t seem to get bothered by being under pressure. While other competitors get really anxious, he seems calm and collected while he competes.

What are you most excited to experience in Lyon, France?

This will be my first time at a WorldSkills competition and so I’m excited to see and meet people from around the world that share my passion.
