What was the first thing that went through your mind when you realized your competitor made Team Canada?

I was excited and proud of our competitor and to learn he had qualified for worlds.

What made you want to train competitors for Skills Competitions?

I really enjoy sharing knowledge and experiences with the competitors.

What do you think sets your competitor apart from the others in their skill area?

My competitor is always trying to learn more and do better.

What are you most excited to experience in Lyon, France?

The thrill of the competition, not to mention the coffee and pastries.
