- Interpretation of drawings and specifications
- Use of edge cutting tools such as planes and chisels
- Accurate measuring
- Proper gluing techniques
- Cutting of sheet stock
- Proper installation of common hardware
- Solving of construction problems

PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

This year's project is a Mitred Case with a hinged lid sitting on an X-frame stand. Inside the case will be a loose tray with dovetail corners on one end and pinned rabbeted corners on the other. The tray will rest on 2 support rails. The X-frame stand features a half-lap joint for the legs and a tusked through tenon for the curved stretcher. The top will have solid edging mitred on all corners and fastened with non-mortise hinges to the case. Post-Secondary competitors will create a 4-way veneer match, vacuum pressed to the top core. The project will incorporate various types of joinery including:

- Joints reinforced with biscuits and dowels
- Machined joints such as half-laps, rabbets and mortise and tenon
- Hand cut dovetail joinery

Project drawings will be posted with specifications for this year's Secondary and Post-Secondary project. Please note that the actual competition project may have up to 30% change from the posted drawings.

The project combines the use of solid wood and manufactured sheet goods. Clean machining of components, efficient assembly and consistent surface preparation all need to come together for a successful outcome. Competitors must be competent with hand tools, stationary woodworking machinery and portable power tools. Safe working practices will be in effect at all times.

For safety on and around machinery – loose fitting sleeves, dangling jewelry or other items (e.g. hoodie strings, lanyards) should be avoided.

JUDGING CRITERIA

The project elements will be marked according to the following guidelines:

Overall Dimensions	10%
Detail Dimensions	10%
Case Joinery and Assembly	35%
Lower Frame Joinery and Assembly	30%
Surface Preparation	15%
Drawing Reading Quiz	5%

Some of the joinery components will be marked prior to assembly so that internal surfaces may be evaluated. It is up to the competitors to make sure those components are handed in.

Exact weighting of elements may deviate slightly on the actual marking rubric.

TIE BREAKING PROCESS

The Dovetail mark prior to and post assembly will be used as the first tie breaker. The overall dimension marks will be the second tie-breaker. If still tied, the quality of other joinery elements will be used.
