

SCOTT BAILER

Team Canada Trainer

TRADE: Heavy Vehicle Technology
INSTITUTE: Northwestern Polytechnic
COMPETITOR: Luke Emeny
HOMETOWN: Fairview, AB

What was the first thing that went through your mind when you realized your competitor made Team Canada?

"I was ecstatic. Our competitor put in a lot of work to get where he is and it's exciting to see the hard work pay off."

What made you want to train competitors for Skills competitions?

"As an instructor at Northwestern Polytechnic, I pride myself in training and passing my knowledge on to new and upcoming technicians, being able to train competitors for skills competitions is another way to share that knowledge on a more personal basis."

What do you think sets your competitor apart from the others in their skill area?

"All competitors at this level are exceptional and talented, so that goes without saying. What I think sets our competitor apart is his charisma and composure. If he runs into any adversity, he can keep a level head and work his way through it."

What are you most excited to experience in Shanghai, China?

"There's a lot of things I'm excited to experience in Shanghai as I've never been to Asia, but I think the thing I'm most excited to experience is the culture!"
